

Small and Large Group Eligibility and Effective Dates—Based on Certificate Language

Type of Enrollment	When to Apply	Effective Date	Supporting Documentation
Annual Enrollment Period	Each year there is an enrollment period that will be determined by federal law to allow enrollment. Unless eligible for a Special Enrollment Period, individuals must apply during the annual enrollment period, which is the month prior to the group’s anniversary date.	Coverage will be effective on the anniversary date of the group.	Employee group enrollment application (must be completed and submitted within 31 days of becoming eligible for coverage).
New Employee	Must apply within 31 days of becoming eligible (eligibility date would be the date coverage would become effective under the policy). (Also, may apply within 60 days of loss of eligibility for Medicaid and after eligibility for premium assistance determination). If the employee does not enroll as stated above, he/she must wait until the next annual enrollment period, unless he/she qualifies for a Special Enrollment Period.	Coverage will be effective on the date he/she is initially eligible.	Employee group enrollment application must be completed and submitted within 31 days of becoming eligible for coverage.
	Example: If the group has a probationary period that states coverage becomes effective the first of the month following one month of full-time employment: Date of hire: Sept. 3, 2019 Eligibility Date: Nov. 1, 2019 Application must be received by: Dec. 2, 2019 (31 days)
